Korero Nui - Important Information

Ara is a Business Division of Te Pūkenga - New Zealand Institute of Skills and Technology.

Programme Handbook

We recommend that you read your Learner Information handbook in conjunction with the Programme Handbook (also available on MyAra) which has more detailed information about the structure of your courses and the academic rules that apply.

Attendance

Experience has shown that if you attend regularly and participate in the class activities and assessments you are more likely to succeed. Full attendance and commitment are encouraged. You are expected to be punctual and must comply with the various behaviour and safety requirements of classrooms, workshops and labs.

For an International learner satisfactory progress is defined as 100% attendance and successful completion of 75% or more of your courses.

If you do not attend or engage, Ara will contact you.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Tools

When submitting work for assessment, you must adhere to Ara's Assessment and Academic Misconduct policies and not present AI such as ChatGPT as your own work. Learning Services have resources to help you learn to paraphrase or reference another person's work to avoid academic misconduct.

For more detail please read your Programme Handbook.

Smoke and Vape free Campuses

Ara is a smoke-and vape free environment for everyone who works, studies, visits, or has business at Ara campuses at any time.

Smoking and vaping is prohibited in:

- all buildings or parts of buildings

- on all Ara land holdings and perimeters including all car parks, green spaces, and external eating areas

You can download the policy from CPP505 Smokefree Ara.pdf

Drugs and Alcohol

In line with the expectations of many workplaces, Ara has procedures to ensure the health and safety of all learners, staff and visitors, while undertaking Ara activities.

Ara has zero tolerance for the misuse or abuse of alcohol and/or illegal/controlled drugs, possession and/or use of illegal/controlled drugs/substances, or intoxication on all campuses/learning sites.

Many learning activities involve high-risk situations where clear thinking, decision-making, and machinery operation need to be conducted safely. These activities cannot be compromised.

You can download the policy from CPP506 Drugs & Alcohol Policy

Te Whakarite - Getting Set Up

MyAra

MyAra is our student portal, which provides quick and easy access to information about your study at Ara. There is a MyAra website as well as a downloadable app from the App Store or Google Play for mobile devices.

Familiarise yourself with MyAra and check it regularly. The first things to check out are your learner email, timetable information and Moodle access

Getting your Ara ID Card

The Ara ID card is your formal learner ID and library card. It can be used for photocopying, printing, security access and for learner discounts. Keep your Ara ID card on you at all times, as access to buildings may be restricted without your ID.

You can use your card to borrow items from the library once your course starts. It can also give you general after hours' access, i.e. computer suites, bike lock-up.

Your Ara ID card can be issued by giving your ID number (from your invoice) to:

Note: You may need to get a new ID card issued for each new programme that you enrol in.

Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice

Note: Please refer to Education \(Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International learners\) Code of Practice 2021 for detailed information

The Code sets out the expectations that tertiary education organisations need to consider how their overall systems and resources support learners' wellbeing and safety. Tertiary providers will build and maintain strong relationships with learners and their interested stakeholders to identify and define the issues that are important for their communities and develop appropriate strategic goals, plans and practices around them

Code Administrator

NZQA is responsible for monitoring and investigating tertiary education providers like Ara to ensure that we are both following the Code of Practice and taking steps to improve our performance.

Accessibility

Ara is an inclusive learning environment where you are accepted and valued, respected and able to connect with social and cultural networks that are safe and supportive.

Where you may need it, Ara provides support to enable you to access your learning by assisting you to remove barriers you may face. You can access support through Disability Services. Our aim is to provide advice and support to enable you to access life at Ara on an equitable basis with your non-disabled peers.

Ara provides accessible learning environments where you can connect with others, build relationships, support each other, and welcome your friends, families, and whānau.

For more information about our Disability Services more information is available at Disability Services

Financial Assistance

If you are struggling to continue with your study due to unforeseen financial issues you may be able to apply for assistance. Visit us in Te Tira Toko Taurira Student Support or contact us using learnersupport@ara.ac.nz to discuss your situation and find out what you could be eligible for.

As an enrolled Ara learner if you face unexpected hardship, there are several funds you can apply to which are designed to enable you to continue your current study, like the:

- Emergency Assistance
- Ara Financial Hardship Assistance

Also check to make sure you have applied for your full StudyLink entitlement and any scholarships at Ara Scholarships

For more information about financial assistance or budgeting, see Financial assistance

Financial Support Between Study Periods

If you have a break three weeks or longer between study, and you are not working to support yourself during this time, you may be eligible to apply for Jobseeker Support Student Hardship assistance. More information is available at Jobseeker Support Student Hardship - StudyLink

How to notify Ara of a problem or make a complaint

You may have a concern or complaint about a course, tutor, or another aspect of your programme. Ara will work with you to effectively respond to and process your complaints (including appropriate engagement with support people) and inform you on how the complaint will be handled and how it is progressing.

To make a complaint, contact the Manager, or the Head of Department. They will advise you about what to do next, the Ara policy and complaints process Complaints, as well as the education quality assurance agency complaints process, the code administrator's complaints process, and the Student Dispute Resolution Scheme (financial or contractual disputes for international learners only).

Assistance is also available from the Student Advocate and the Complaints Co-ordinator.

For more information about how to make a complaint, see Ara Policy Library select General Administration and click on CPP117 Raising Problems or Complaints. You can download the form from CPP117a-Raising-problems-or-complaints-form

Learner Voice

Ara is committed to understanding and responding to diverse learner voices and wellbeing and safety needs.

Within Ara, the learner voice is a powerful tool to create change and you will have the opportunity to tell us what you think about your academic and social experience by providing feedback using:

- Student representatives
- Comment boxes
- Online feedback tools
- Focus groups
- Face-to-face testimonials
- Student Council

Everyone at Ara is seeking positive change to better support learner success and wellbeing and we need your input to make that happen.

For more information, please contact the Student Voice Advisor using studentvoice@ara.ac.nz

Recognition and response to discrimination, racism, bullying and harassment (including sexual harassment)

Ara is committed to ensuring you are treated with respect and dignity in all of your dealings with us and does not condone any form of harassment or unacceptable conduct. If you are experiencing any form of behaviour that is unwanted, please let us know as soon as possible.

For more information about the available procedures to get resolution, see Ara Policy Library select General Administration and click on CPP117 Raising Problems or Complaints. You can download the form from CPP117a-Raising-problems-or-complaints-form

How to Change Your Contact Details

You are required to ensure that Ara has your current contact details. This is because important information is sent out during the year.

If you need to change your email, cell phone or postal address details at any time this should be done via the Student Portal / MyAra. Student Portal Login

How to Change Your Enrolment

If you wish to add, withdraw or change your programme of study, the first step is to talk with the tutor or Programme Leader, or the Department Support Administrator who can offer advice and assistance.

All requests for course amendments or withdrawals must be made in writing preferably on an official Enrolment Amendment form that can be obtained from the Admissions and Results team or your Department Support Administrator. All requests for course amendments and withdrawals are subject to the Terms and Conditions of Enrolment.

Note: You can also send an email to your department (or intl admissions@ara.ac.nz for international students) and say which course you are withdrawing from.

Please note that changing your enrolment may affect loans and/or allowances paid by StudyLink, or eligibility for a Student Visa to study in New Zealand. This is also the case if you decide to withdraw from the entire programme, so no matter what the reason, we strongly recommend that you discuss any changes to your enrolments with staff.

Please see your enrolment paperwork or Programme Handbook for information about dates for withdrawal without financial implications or implication for your academic record.

Privacy Guidelines

Under the Privacy Act (2020) Ara staff are unable to confirm, deny or divulge an individual's presence on campus or whereabouts. We would advise friends and family to contact you on your cell phone or at home. We can only share information related to your enrolment with your express (usually written) permission.

Unacceptable Behaviour for Learners, or Visitors at Ara

The following are examples of behaviour which are not acceptable for anyone (learners, or visitors), at Ara or involved in Ara related activities:

- Breaking any NZ law (e.g., assault, theft).
- Any form of cheating (including plagiarism and other dishonest practices).
- Misuse of technology, software, hardware, or communication systems provided by Ara (refer Ara Code of Conduct for ICT Users in particular).
- Any form of harassment, bullying, or unjust discrimination including social media.
- Unacceptable sexual behaviour (e.g., sexual harassment, accessing pornography/other restricted material).
- Misuse of alcohol, drugs or other substances affecting behaviour, health, or safety.
- Smoking (including vaping) on Ara campuses. (Ara is a smoke free campus).
- Violence or threats of violence.
- Vandalism or other abuse of facilities and buildings.
- Disruptive behaviour in class (e.g., arriving late, use of any electronic device, interfering with the learning of other individuals).
- Inductions (informal) are not permitted at Ōtautahi House or on other Ara premises and are strongly and expressly discouraged by Ara.
- The above is not an exhaustive list of unacceptable behaviours. Where appropriate, Ara reserves the right to contact or report to external authorities.

Academic staff have the responsibility to maintain a safe and effective learning environment.

They may ask you to leave the class if your behaviour indicates limited ability to be safe, disturbance to others learning, or puts others at risk.

Ara takes this code of conduct seriously. Your marks, reports, and references may include an assessment of your behaviour, as well as your educational achievement. Serious infringement may lead to probation, suspension, or cancellation of a current enrolment and/or refusal of a future enrolment (see relevant policies). This may be referred to an appropriate external authority e.g., NZ Police

Learner Behaviour in class / classroom maintenance

Be respectful of other learners and the classroom environment, following classroom specific rules and requirements. To avoid any distractions, you must ensure any electronic device you have on you/with you is diverted, not set to ring, or switched off. Both staff and students have a responsibility to ensure this happens

Use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) Tools

Generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) services such as ChatGPT can be used for learning. When submitting work for assessment, you must adhere to Ara's Assessment and Academic Misconduct policies. In relation to AI, this means;

- you must not present any output from any AI services as your own work in your assessment.
- you must use your own words.
- if you paraphrase or quote from a source such as a textbook, website and AI service, you must reference correctly

If you submit an assessment using content copied directly from an AI service without acknowledgement, it is a form of academic misconduct.

Dress code

There is no written dress code, but you are expected to attend classes dressed in a way which is generally acceptable. However, you're expected to be "dressed for the occasion" when going on a site visit or undertaking a Cooperative Education Project. You may be prevented from going on site visits if the staff member is of the opinion that you're not dressed for the occasion. In specific courses, a "dress code" and standard is required. These will be detailed in the Programme Handbook and Course Outline.

Te whakamahi rorohiko me te ipuraki o Ara - Using Ara Computers and the Internet

Using Ara Computers

There are many computers around Ara for learner use. It is free to use Ara email, the intranet, and internet, but your use is monitored. If you have any problems, please contact the ICT Service Desk (contact details on page 30). After-hours access to a variety of computer labs is possible using your Ara ID card as swipe access at the door, which can be encoded by Security.

You are given a login username and password once you are enrolled and can use these to log in to any computer on campus. Login for the first time using the password provided in your enrolment letter, then select Ctrl+Alt+Del to create your password.

Visiting the MyAra website

You'll use MyAra frequently while you're studying at Ara. It's where you go to access Moodle, the Student Portal and your learner email.

Using your Learner Email Account

As an Ara learner you get a free email account. It will be used to communicate with you while you are a learner. You can access this anywhere, anytime. Your email address is your network username (which is alphanumeric, i.e., abc123) followed by @arastudent.ac.nz, for example: username@arastudent.ac.nz

Click on the Mail tile on MyAra to access your email or access your learner email on your own device.

Note: We recommend you forward your student email messages to your personal email account. You can set up Forwarding from the Settings menu. We do not want you to be disadvantaged in any way if you do not read emails sent to your student email address

Using the Student Portal

The Ara Student Portal is the place where you will find all your learner related information including your enrolments, timetable and academic results. You can also update your address and contact details when they change. To access the portal, click on Student Portal in MyAra.

Your username is your first name, then a full stop, then your family name e.g. Joe.Bloggs. Click on retrieve your password and enter your birth date with no gaps or dashes e.g. 01071996. You will receive an email (to the address you gave when you enrolled) with your password. Enter the password and click Login. You can change your password on the Details page.

Using Moodle

You can use Moodle to find information about your classes, submit assessments electronically, and view resources your tutor has uploaded. Before you login to Moodle using your own device, you will need to login using a campus computer. For more information about using Moodle, contact your tutor.

How to log in

Use the steps below to log into Moodle:

1. To access Moodle click on Moodle on Courses & Moodle in MyAra or use the following link: Ara Moodle: Log in to the site
2. When prompted to login, which you can do 21 days prior to your courses starting, use your standard Ara username and password. If you have any issues logging in you can contact the ICT Service Desk.
3. You can change the password when you have logged in.

Once logged in you should see a menu containing links to the courses you are currently enrolled in. If any courses are missing this could be because your tutor has not yet granted access to the page, in this case ask your tutor when you go to your first class, alternatively it may mean your enrolment is still being processed. When you finish your course you retain access to the course page for approximately 14 days.

Wi-Fi Access

Free wi-fi is freely available for learners and staff using your everyday Ara username and password. Connecting is usually as simple as connecting to wi-fi at home.

Our updated Ara Wi-Fi Connector app is available from Google play store.

We strongly suggest you use the new version to configure the Wi-Fi connection on your device to ensure maximum security and avoid fake 'ARA WIFI' connections.

Our version is easily identifiable by the inclusion of the "View Password" button (As seen below).

The screenshot displays the 'Ara Wi-Fi Connector' app interface. At the top, the title 'Ara Wi-Fi Connector' is visible. Below the title is the Ara logo, which consists of a stylized 'A' made of three triangles (two blue, one green) above the word 'Ara'. The main heading is 'Configure & Connect to Ara Wi-Fi'. Below this, there are two input fields: 'Network Username' and 'Password'. The 'Password' field has a red square button with an eye icon to its right, which is highlighted by a red box. Below the password field, there is a small text note: 'App will close upon completion.' and a 'CONFIGURE' button. At the bottom of the screen, there is a disclaimer: 'This application does not store your credentials or use any personal information provided for any other purpose than to configure on site Ara Wi-Fi for this device. If problems persist please contact the Ara ICT Service Desk on 03 940 8800 or via email at ICTServiceDesk@ara.ac.nz'.

Online security is becoming more important than ever. While there's no bulletproof way to prevent a cyber attack, here are some easy tips to help you keep your personal information safe and secure.

Back up your data  Using an external hard drive or a cloud-based service, copy your data to another separate location so you can retrieve it if necessary.	Keep your operating system up to date  Updates often fix vulnerabilities that attackers can find and use to access your system. It's an effective way to help keep them out.	Install antivirus software  Free online antivirus software can be fake. Purchase antivirus software from a reputable company and run it regularly.	Choose unique passwords  Create unique passwords for each account – that way if an attacker gets hold of one of your passwords, they can't get access to all of your other accounts.	Set up two-factor authentication (2FA)  Choose to get a code sent to another device like your phone when logging in online – it helps stop hackers getting into your accounts.	Use creative recovery answers  Common security answers like your pets name or your school can be easy for an attacker to find out. Choose novel answers that aren't necessarily real.
Be cautious of free WiFi networks  Be careful using free Wifi and hot spots - they are untrusted networks so others could see what you are doing.	Be smart with social media  What you post on social media can give cyber criminals information that they can use against you. Set your privacy so only friends and family can see your details.	Don't give out personal info  Legitimate-looking emails are very clever at trying to trick us into giving away personal or financial information. Stop and check if you know who the email is from.	Check bank statements regularly  Keeping an eye on your bank statements could be the first tip-off that someone has accessed your accounts. Ring your bank immediately if you see something suspicious.	Get a regular credit check  An annual credit check will alert you if someone else is using your details to get loans or credit.	To report a cyber security problem, visit www.cert.govt.nz Report via the ARA ICT Service Desk ictservicedesk@ara.ac.nz
